

A man with a beard and glasses, wearing a black t-shirt, is smiling as he works in a workshop. He is using a pencil to mark a piece of wood on a workbench. The background is filled with various tools and equipment, including a blue level, a green machine, and a wooden wall with hanging tools.

BLACKWING

STAFF INTRODUCTION

THE BLACKWING DIFFERENCE

Blackwing pencils combine their distinct design and heritage with the best materials in the world to create an exceptional pencil.

HERITAGE

First introduced in the 1930s.

*Known users include Bugs Bunny creator
Chuck Jones and John Steinbeck.*

Discontinued in the 1990s, causing unused stock to sell for up to $40 per pencil.

CRAFTSMANSHIP

Blackwing pencils are crafted with California Incense-cedar and premium Japanese graphite by artisan pencil makers in Japan. The pencils are tipped, finished, packed and distributed at our California HQ.

UTILITY

California Incense-cedar sharpens evenly and easily.

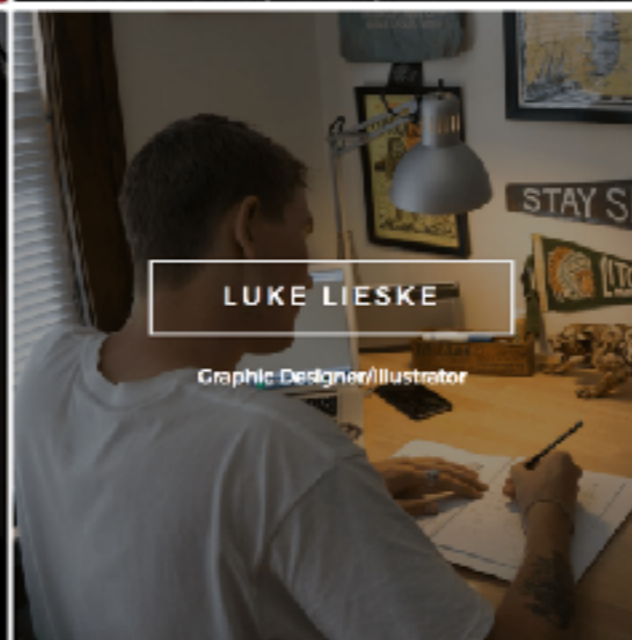

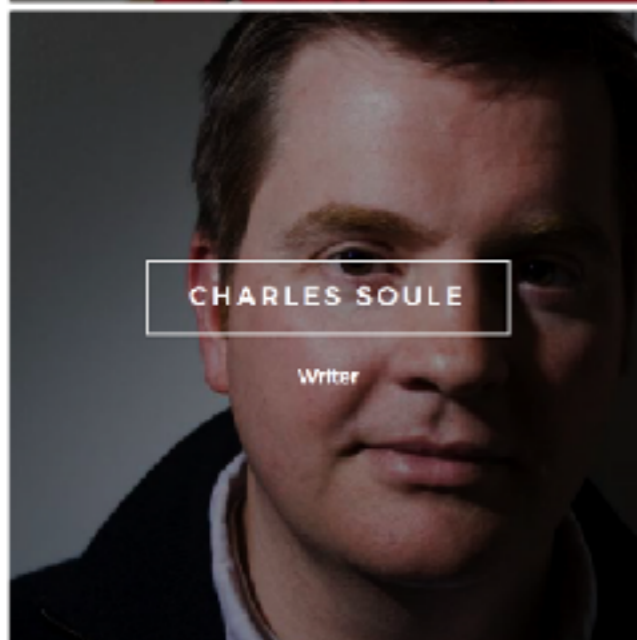

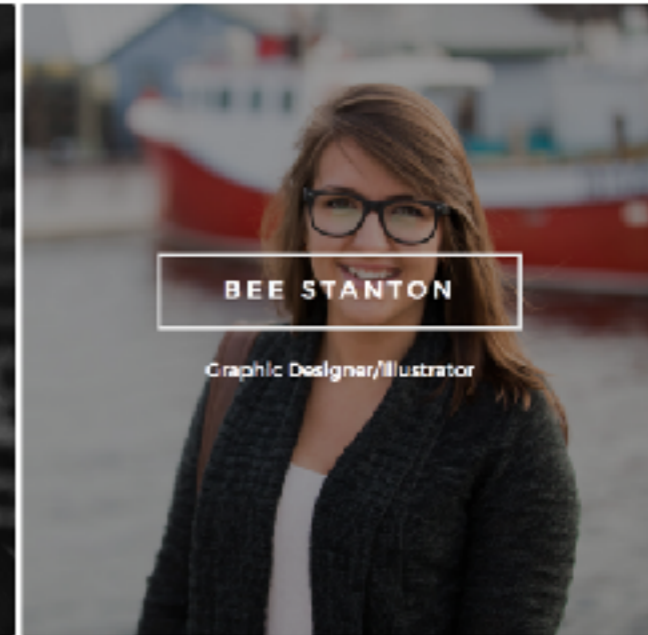

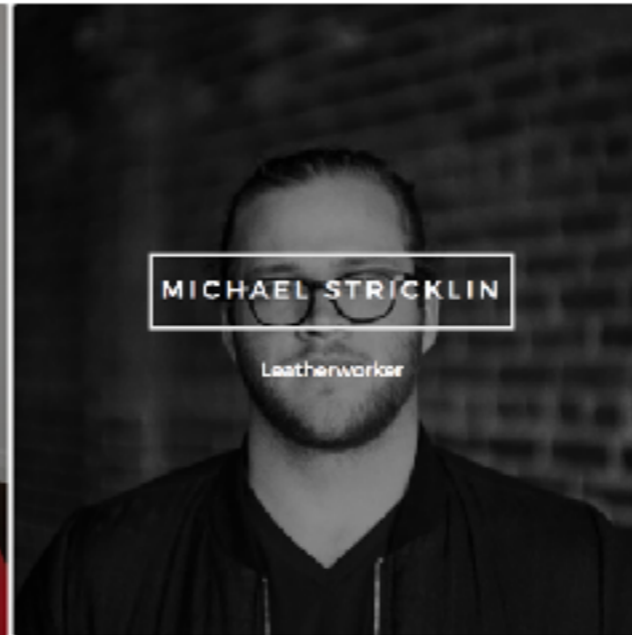

Extendable eraser ensures the pencil is always functional.

*Graphite lays down smooth and consistent,
allowing for light or dark marks.*

WHAT TYPES OF PEOPLE USE THEM?

Blackwing pencils aren't just for artists. Writers, doodlers, video game designers leatherworkers and UI/UX developers are just some of the people who use our pencils.
